Movers & Shakers

Supporting Minority Economic Development Since 1989

Movers & Shakers (M&S) is the private fundraising group that provides financial support to the Minority Economic Development Committee (MEDC). M&S believe that MEDC is needed in the Hopkinsville-Christian County community. Movers & Shakers demonstrate their belief and support by making financial contributions.

Movers and Shakers are people, businesses and organizations that believe minority economic development is needed and worthwhile in Hopkinsville/Christian County. All ages, races and genders, etc. are welcomed to join the Movers & Shakers.

Kentucky State University (KSU) Cooperative Extension Program provides outreach and educational programs throughout Kentucky. With funding from the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA), KSU's Rural Entrepreneurial Outreach and Development Initiative (KSU REODI) focuses on energizing entrepreneurs as a fresh approach to support the development of local businesses and create quality jobs. KSU works with partners from the Chamber of Commerce, Small Business Development Center (SBDC), Kentucky Cooperative Extension Service, Community and Technical College, USDA Rural Development, and others to support the development of new enterprises.
